

“Success for Every Child”

Date: 15 Jun 2020

Dear Year 4 families,

We are almost at the end of our extraordinary school year! We would like to share how we will celebrate the end of the year with the children as well as a few important reminders.

End of Year Celebration

We would love to celebrate the end of the year with the children on Tuesday 23 June. This will be done in school with just students and teachers.

Keeping our new health and safety guidelines in mind, here's how we will celebrate:

-Children can wear casual clothes

-They can bring in a special snack for themselves - they will not be sharing snacks.

-Based on feedback from the children, we'll do art activities, dancing, and sharing their favorite moments of this year. Each class celebration will be slightly different based on what the children have decided to do.

-Celebrations will take place within our designated learning space. We will be unable to mix class groups.

Reminders

-Please remind your child to bring an extra bag with them each day they are in school next week so that we can start sending home items from school.

-All borrowed Chromebooks must be handed in on Friday, June 19. Children will need to use devices at home for our Zoom calls on Monday 22 June and Wednesday 24 June.

-On Thursday 18 June due to our KJS transition days, there will be no class Zooms. Distance learning will still be provided for children to work through independently. Mandarin Zooms will still happen at 9:15 am.

-Wednesday 24 June will be the last day of school. We will have 2 Zooms that day. Your child’s teacher will communicate the times of those Zooms.

-All library books must be returned to the KJS Library by Wednesday June 17. You can see which books your child has checked out under their name by logging into Orbit.
