

“Success for Every Child”

Date: 24 Sep 2020

Dear Parents,

As you are aware we have a workshop planned for Tuesday 29 September at 5 p.m. focusing on the Relationships and Sexuality Education (RSE) curriculum for Y1 and 2. This session will be led by Mr Ciarian Fay, the Vice Principal who leads this area within school.

The ESF RSE curriculum is a curriculum that runs from K1 to Year 13. The four key elements in this curriculum are the following:

- Relationships
- Gender, Values and Sexuality
- Staying Safe
- Human Body and Development

The content for each of these areas are age appropriate and during the workshop we will be focusing on the Year 1 and 2 curriculum. The content relating to the four themes above will be:

- Relationships - Families and roles and responsibilities
- Gender, Values and Sexuality - boys and girls being equal a home, at school and in the community
- Staying safe - online and offline
- Human Body and Development - naming the body parts

The aim of the workshop is to share with you what we will be sharing with the children throughout the school year. This will enable you to be able to support your child at home with this important learning.

The session will take place via Zoom and we will send you a link on Tuesday morning. In the meantime, please register HERE for this session so we can send the link to you.

Warm Regards

Jane Parker
Vice Principal
