

“Success for Every Child”

Date: 11 Nov 2020

Dear Parents,

We are extremely pleased that home reading books can now go home with our students, you will receive further information through your child's class teacher. They will need their library bag to transport the books, so please make sure that your child has one and brings it to school with them when needed.

ESF have produced the guidance graphic as attached, for use of books at home, please take your time to look at the procedure you should undertake when using school reading books.

With regards

Jane Parker

Vice Principal
