Dear Parents,

We have a workshop originally planned for Tuesday 16 March focusing on the Relationships and Sexuality Education (RSE) curriculum for Y5 and 6. Due to a clash of commitments, this workshop will be rescheduled to Wednesday 24 March 2021 at 5 pm.

The ESF RSE curriculum is a curriculum that runs from K1 to Year 13. The four key elements in this curriculum are the following:

- Relationships
- Gender, Values and Sexuality
- Staying Safe
- Human Body and Development

The content for each of these areas are age appropriate and during the workshop we will be focusing on the Year 5 and 6 curriculum. The content relating to the four themes above will be:

- Relationships - Families and roles and responsibilities
- Gender, Values and Sexuality - boys and girls being equal a home, at school and in the community
- Staying safe - online and offline
- Human Body and Development - naming the body parts, body image

The aim of the workshop is to share with you what we will be sharing with the children throughout the school year. This will enable you to be able to support your child at home with this important learning.
