Dear Parents and Caregivers,

KJS Library Team would like to introduce three subscription plans offered by South China Morning Post (SCMP) for interested families. As you know, reading newspapers provides students with many benefits such as staying connected with current affairs in the local community, improving vocabulary, and as a source of general knowledge.

Please note all three options below are in digital formats and no print options are available due to Covid.

1. South China Morning Post & Young Post (ePaper)*

Annual subscription fee: HK$299

Login with access to daily ePaper: 1 September 2022 - 30 June 2023

2. South China Morning Post & Young Post (digital)

Annual subscription fee: HK$880

Login with access to browser: 1 October 2022 - 30 September 2023

3. Posties (ePaper) published every Wednesday

Weekly edutainment newspaper - each subscription will come with online access to an eLearning zone & Posties ePaper.

Total subscription fee for 36 issues: HK$144

Sample issue of Posties: posties.hk/read
